JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
Joint Meeting of the Missouri Bar and Judicial Conference
St. Louis, Missouri
Friday, 16 September 1988

Chief Judge William Billings has invited you to speak before the Joint Meeting of the Missouri Bar and the Judicial Conference on Friday, 16 September in St. Louis. The suggested format is 20 - 30 minutes of remarks. The audience would include members of the Missouri State bench and bar.

You could expect some overlap with this audience and the group that you are addressing at the St. Louis Law Day on April 29th. You also are considering foreign travel which could conflict with this September date. I recommend that you decline this invitation and have attached a letter of regret for your signature.

The Honorable William H. Billings
Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Missouri
P.O. Box 150
Jefferson City, Missouri 65102

Dear Bill:

Many thanks for inviting me to address the Missouri Bar and Judicial Conference on September 16th. As I mentioned in our phone conversation, I will be speaking at Law Day in St. Louis on April 29th and hope to see many members then. To complicate matters even more I find that I have tentative plans for foreign travel. Much as I would enjoy meeting with all of you, I believe that this time it was not meant to be.

Warmest regards and best wishes for a successful conference

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Bill

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Public Affairs
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Speaking Invitation--Joint Meeting of Missouri Bar and Judicial Conference,
16 September 1988

1. Chief Judge Billings of the Missouri Supreme Court called today to invite me to appear before the Joint Meeting of the Missouri Bar and the Judicial Conference on September 16th for a 20-30 minute talk. This would be in St. Louis. I told him that I was already speaking on April 29th (which he knew but argued that I would only be appearing before a limited forum of the State). I told him that September is often a travel time and that the scheduling office scrutinizes the number of trips that I take to Missouri. He said he could overcome that by issuing a subpoena.

2. I guess this is our formal invitation. What is your recommendation?

William H. Webster
